Who:

Ages 50 to 70ish with old-fashioned relationship values.

You may bring one support friend whom may not be interested in dating. If you do, please ask the host for wings stickers so all will know that your friend is your wing man/woman and they are not looking to date.

Why and How:

Singles events are good for making friends, but very few who attend are looking to date. Dating sites seem like a good idea (yeah right). You are reading this so I don't need to say any more.

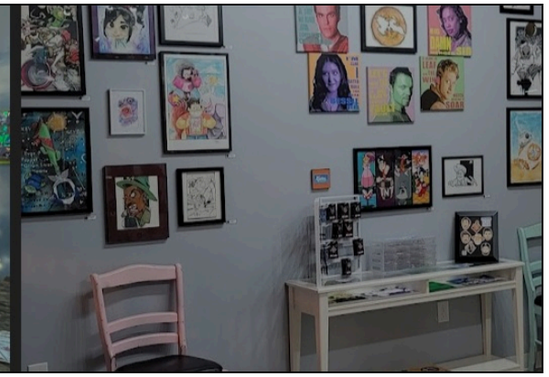
After much thought and many conversations, we have structured our events to have strategies similar to those used by popular dating sites and speed dating events. Dating site matches are based on information that clients have provided and what clients are looking for. Popular speed dating events have fun ice-breaking activites, and mixers with real people who are looking for fun and conversation.

We will start with one of the popular selections: Old-fashioned relationship values, a slow paced walk and optional dinner/coffee, and add more activies and places as our group grows. We combine best of both and keep it simple, consistent, and for most events $free.

Where and When:

Every Sunday 1pm PK Nine, Mount Laurel, NJ

PK Nine fee is $10 per person, per day to play cards and board games. The Staff will show you how.



Every Sunday (Starting Apr 12th) at 2pm Ocean County Mall, 1201 Hooper Ave, Toms River, NJ

We will meet inside by the mall by JCPenney near the County Connection. We will talk and walk at a slow pace, inside or outside the mall. Dinner optional.

Future EVENTs places, days, and times:

Please leave a comment with your suggestions on places, days, and times for dating events, on meetup Entertainment Club of NJ (https://www.meetup.com/entertainment-club-of-nj/).

We are thinking about Wednesday afternoon 11am and/or Wednesday nights 6pm.

Please:

Check the night before for event cancellations.

Guys please be patient and kind. Women may take longer to know that you are the one. Talk, laugh, and have fun. She will let know if she is interested.

Future:

Online events are in future plans with breakout rooms for other age ranges and dating match preferences.

More:

"Social mingling is the best way for singles to meet face-to-face in a fun, low-pressure setting with other singles who are looking to date."(MSSE)

"Finding love is all about taking chances and being pro-active. Be ready to meet others in your age range in one easy-flowing evening and/or while participating in any of the great activities available. Choose the activities you would like to experience again!"(MSSE)
